PEOPLE OF HOPE

Throughout this Easter season the readings have drawn us into the experience of the early church. We have tasted the excitement and zeal of the first Christians. Now, with them, we listen to the words of Saint Peter, who reminds us that when people notice that we are people of hope, we should be ready to explain why. This challenges us. Do others even notice that we are people of hope? In a world often marked by cynicism and hopelessness, do we stand out as people who offer hope and reassurance to others? In today's Gospel Jesus promises that when he leaves the earth he will not leave us orphaned. Today he promises to send his Advocate, the Spirit of truth who will be with us always. Let us acknowledge the presence of the Holy Spirit and ask the Spirit to make us people of hope.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The people of Samaria accepted the word of God preached by Philip; they received the Holy Spirit (Acts 8:5-8, 14-17).

Gospel — I will not leave you orphans, but will come to you (John 14:15-21) or John 17:1-11a.

PUEBLO de ESPERANZA

A lo largo de esta temporada de Pascua las lecturas nos han llevado a la experiencia de la iglesia primitiva. Hemos probado la emoción y el celo de los primeros cristianos. Ahora, con ellos, escuchamos las palabras de San Pedro, que nos recuerda que cuando la gente se da cuenta de que somos personas de esperanza, debemos estar listos para explicar por qué. Esto nos desafía. ¿Se dan cuenta de que somos personas de esperanza? En un mundo a menudo marcado por el cinismo y la desesperanza, ¿nos destacamos como personas que ofrecen esperanza y tranquilidad a los demás? En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús promete que cuando salga de la tierra no nos dejará huérfanos. Hoy promete enviar a su Abogado, el Espíritu de la verdad que siempre estará con nosotros. Reconocemos la presencia del Espíritu Santo y pedimos al Espíritu que nos haga personas de esperanza.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura - El pueblo de Samaria aceptó la palabra de Dios predicada por Felipe; Ellos recibieron el Espíritu Santo (Hechos 8: 5-8, 14-17).

Salmo - Que toda la tierra clame a Dios con alegría (Salmo 66).

Segunda Lectura - Actúen con mansedumbre y reverencia hacia todos, para que cuando sean difamados los que los difamen serán los que se avergüencen (1 Pedro 3: 15-18) o 1 Pedro 4: 13-16.

Evangelio - No los dejaré huérfanos, sino que vendrán a ustedes (Juan 14: 15-21) o Juan 17: 1-11a.

Pentecost Celebration at Holy Family
“Come forth from all Nations”
Sunday, June 4, 2017

As Pentecost approaches let us reflect on the First Reading of that Sunday. What would you say has been the most exciting event in your life so far? The disciples who were gathered in the upper room at the first Pentecost would have no trouble answering that question. They would immediately tell us the story of the Holy Spirit’s dramatic descent on the followers of Jesus. A great, thundering wind! Tongues of scarlet fire parting over their heads! Each person filled with the Holy Spirit! Everyone suddenly speaking in languages they had never known before! What a day that was. At Pentecost the gift of the Spirit filled the disciples with the energy and power to speak so that people from many nations could understand them. It was an event that changed the world and gave birth to the universal church.

We are calling all Members to come forth as one Holy Family! We are celebrating our multicultural heritage (not that we are part of an organization) so everyone at Holy Family is included. Wear your favorite cultural/ethnic attire. Do you know someone who can offer 10 minutes of their culture’s entertainment, dance or song?

To reserve a table to represent your culture, please call the Parish Office, 281-499-9688. You will not want to miss this International Pentecost event for everyone at Holy Family.

Y a todos se nos ha dado a beber del unico Espiritu.” (Segundo Lectura para Pentecostes - Carta de San Pablo a los Corintios 12:12-13).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The custom of genuflection is not found everywhere in the Catholic Church. In fact, it is a bit of breach of etiquette to genuflect in most Eastern Catholic Churches. If you're visiting an Eastern Catholic or an Orthodox church, the "when in Rome" rule should be adopted. Watch what the home team is doing! Usually, Eastern Catholics and Orthodox reserve a small portion of the eucharistic bread for the dying in a cupboard or eucharistic dove, but it is not a center of attention or devotion. The rule is to make a profound bow, called a "metasis," toward the altar—bowing deeply while making the sign of the cross.

East and West split years before we Westerners began to reserve the Blessed Sacrament prominently in our churches. Thus, the East never changed the original custom of bowing toward the altar. Increasingly, as tabernacles became more widespread in the West and moved into prominent placement within churches, we replaced the bow toward the altar with a genuflection toward the Blessed Sacrament when its place of reservation is visible.

In a church where the Blessed Sacrament is reserved in a special chapel or off the main axis of the building, normally you should bow toward the altar when you enter your pew, because the eucharistic table is the principal sign of Christ's presence in the church building. If you have ever participated in the liturgy of Dedication of a Church and Altar, there is no mistaking the altar's significance: it is first slathered with chrism and then adorned with a brazier billowing clouds of incense that fill the whole church as a sign of prayer and presence!

We recognize that things don't always go the way we plan and God has a better plan in store for us. "For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that be God's will, than for doing evil." 1 Peter 3:17
The old line says "if you want to make God laugh, tell him your plans." Many of us are diligent in our planning, making sure things are progressing smoothly, then disaster strikes, we don't get the result that was intended. An unforeseen problem arises. Many times we may respond negatively. Why me? I did everything right! Here's the thing – God has a different and better plan in store for you.

"We do not come to church to attend the service as a spectator, but in order, along with the priest, to serve God. Everything we do—our entering, being present, our kneeling and sitting and standing, our reception of the sacred nourishment—should be divine service. This is so only when all we do overflows from the awareness of a collected heart and the mind's attentiveness." — Fr. Romano Guardini,
