FOLLOWING CHRIST

If you've ever had an unpleasant but somewhat amusing practical joke played on you, then you have some understanding of how Jeremiah feels today when he tells God "good one—you duped me." We can almost see him shaking his head with a bit of a rueful smile, but an angry undertone in his voice. In similar fashion, Peter thinks Jesus is "duping" him when Jesus starts to explain that being Messiah means suffering and dying, and being a follower of the Messiah means taking up a cross and doing the same. Jeremiah tries to deny God's will for him by trying to shut up; Peter—who has just been made the foundation of the church—out and out denies the teaching of Jesus, for which he is named "Satan" today. Fortunately for us, Jeremiah comes to realize that to have the word of God placed in your heart means that it will be futile to try and keep silent, even if it means scorn and derision from those around you. Luckily Peter ultimately returned to the faith he professed in last week's Gospel, and came to understand our need as baptized followers of Christ to follow in his way, even when it means following him to our very death.

Siguiendo a Cristo

Si alguna vez has tenido una broma práctica desagradable pero algo divertida jugada en ti, entonces tienes algo de comprensión de cómo Jeremiah siente hoy cuando le dice a Dios "bueno, me engañaste". Casi lo vemos sacudiendo la cabeza con un Un poco de triste sonrisa, pero un tono enojado en su voz. De manera similar, Pedro piensa que Jesús lo está "engañando" cuando Jesús comienza a explicar que ser Mesías significa sufrimiento y morir, y ser seguidor del Mesías significa tomar una cruz y hacer lo mismo. Jeremías trata de negar la voluntad de Dios para él, tratando de callar; Pedro -que acaba de ser fundado en la iglesia- niega la enseñanza de Jesús, por lo que hoy es llamado "Satanás". Afortunadamente para nosotros, Jeremías se da cuenta de que tener la palabra de Dios puesta en tu corazón significa que será inútil tratar de guardar silencio, aunque eso signifique desprecio y burla de los que te rodean. Por suerte, Peter finalmente regresó a la fe que profesó en el Evangelio de la semana pasada, y llegó a comprender nuestra necesidad como seguidores bautizados de Cristo de seguir a su manera, incluso cuando significa seguirle hasta nuestra muerte.

As followers of Christ we are called to serve; will you serve the Lord...as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion (EMHC)?

The fullest and most central expression of our ministry as a baptized Christian is our participation in the celebration of the Eucharist. "The Eucharist is a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the Father, a blessing by which the Church expresses her gratitude to God for all his benefits, for all that He has accomplished through creation, redemption and sanctification" (CCC 1360). As an EMHC, you are called on to serve the Body of Christ, the church, as it performs its most important work - the Eucharist. Prayerfully consider serving your fellow brothers and sisters in Christ at Holy Family as an EMHC, a ministry that requires almost none of your time other than when you are attending Sunday Mass but from which you will receive so much more than you give. Applicants must be at least age 18 and have received sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. Call the Parish Office for more information, 281-499-9688

Fire lanes are considered a part of the fire protection system of any building. It is designed to allow unobstructed fire equipment access at all times to the building in the event of a fire or a medical emergency. Whenever a fire lane is blocked, the safety of that building and its occupants are jeopardized. The owner of the property AND the vehicle owner are both subject to penalties for violations. Also, ANY vehicle in violation of this ordinance may be towed at the expense of the owner.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It's interesting to imagine the scene when the changes in our liturgy were first tested. Choices for prayer texts were one thing, but responses from the people were another. In early 1967, secret test-drives of the new Mass were conducted in the Vatican. Pope Paul VI was present, and there was a handful of bishops, priests, a few laypeople and two sisters making up the assembly. Everyone had a booklet with every word of the songs, rubrics, and prayers, blank paper, and a pencil for notes. After each Mass, the ordained men in the group met in the pope's library to share their experiences. The laypeople and sisters met separately.

Over a week's time they tested what they called a "read Mass with singing," a "Mass entirely recited," and a "Sung Mass." While the ordained were generally in favor, the lay comments were very clear and insightful, and had great impact on the final result. This was a brilliant plan on the part of the pope, who got to see how the reform was going, and to recognize in this small trial run a growing consensus that reform was needed and welcome. Based on his observation, Pope Paul VI called for specific innovations, such as beginning the Mass with the sign of the cross. It's amazing that some of our most familiar rites are really quite new treasures of our tradition!

TESOROS DE NUESTRA TRADICIÓN

Es interesante imaginar la escena cuando los cambios en nuestra liturgia fueron probados por primera vez. Las opciones para los textos de oración eran una cosa, pero las respuestas de la gente eran otra. A principios de 1967 se llevaron a cabo en el Vaticano pruebas secretas de la nueva misa. El Papa Pablo VI estaba presente, y había un puñado de obispos, sacerdotes, unos pocos laicos y dos hermanas que componían la asamblea. Todo el mundo tenía un folleto con cada palabra de las canciones, rúbricas y oraciones, papel en blanco, y un lápiz para las notas. Después de cada Misa, los hombres ordenados en el grupo se reunieron en la biblioteca del Papa para compartir sus experiencias. Los laicos y las hermanas se reunieron por separado.

Durante una semana probaron lo que ellos llamaron una "misa leída con canto", una "misa enteramente recitada" y una "misa cantada". Mientras que los ordenados eran generalmente a favor, los comentarios eran muy claros y perspicaces, y tenían Gran impacto en el resultado final. Este fue un plan brillante por parte del Papa, que llegó a ver cómo iba la reforma, y reconocer en este pequeño juicio un creciente consenso de que la reforma era necesaria y bienvenida. Basado en su observación, el Papa Pablo VI pidió innovaciones específicas, como comenzar la Misa con el signo de la cruz. Es increíble que algunos de nuestros ritos más familiares son realmente nuevos tesoros de nuestra tradición!

RELIGION DEFINED...I do not know how philosophers may ultimately define religion; but from Micah to James it has been defined as service to one's fellow human rendered by following the great rule of justice and mercy, of wisdom and righteousness. —Theodore Roosevelt

Holy Family is in need of Catechists, those willing to share faith with children, teens and adults.

Recruiting catechists is one of the most difficult challenges that catechetical leaders face! We know that the invitation to become a catechist, while flattering, can also be intimidating, not sure if we are qualified or capable of forming others in the faith. As a result, we often come into this ministry with a bit of reluctance, maybe a little fear! Fear not my fellow parishioners, it is a matter of learning the techniques and being able to share our catholic faith!

At Holy Family we are blessed with formation and support for all our Catechists at every level training classes are now being formed to get you started

If you are considering the call to serve as a catechist, we hope you call The CCE office @ 281-499-4612 and talk to us about the possibilities.

Presently we need catechists and core team members for:

- * Elementary Religious Education Programs on Sundays and Wednesdays
- * Middle School on Sundays and Wednesdays
- * Sacrament Preparation classes Sundays and once a month on Tuesdays
- * Adult Faith Formation

Voluntarios / Catequistas Necesarios

La Sagrada Familia necesita catequistas, aquellos dispuestos a compartir la fe con niños, adolescentes y adultos.

¡Reclutamiento de catequistas es uno de los retos más difíciles que enfrentan los líderes catequéticos! Sabemos que la invitación a ser catequista, aunque halagador, también puede ser intimidante, no estamos seguros de si somos calificados o capaces de formar a otros en la fe. Como resultado, a menudo entramos en este ministerio con un poco de renuencia, tal vez un poco de miedo! ¡No temas a mis parroquianos, es una cuestión de aprender las técnicas y poder compartir nuestra fe católica! En Holy Family somos bendecidos con la formación y el apoyo para todos nuestros Catequistas en cada nivel. Las clases de entrenamiento ahora se están formando para comenzar Si usted está considerando la llamada para servir como catequista, esperamos que llame a la oficina de CCE @ 281-499-4612 y hable con nosotros acerca de las posibilidades.

· Nuestros Programas de Educación Religiosa para todos los grados escolares los domingos.
