December 29, 2019 The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary & Joseph

Dear Sisters and Brothers of Holy Family,

As we come to the close of the Year 2019, Let us thank God for all His blessings especially for the graces for growing together in Christ as "One Faith, One Family".

Thank God, this year we started our 12-hour adoration ministry and through it we all received abundant graces to grow in our prayer life. We started to make a long-range plan for our parish and we are making progress on it through our survey and forming different committees. Also, we have formed a Communication committee to improve communication and evangelization efforts through the medias of communication. Our website looks so beautiful and updated now and I congratulate and thank them for their hard work and dedication. We welcomed lot of new families to our parish family and through all our ministries especially religious education, we continue the ministry of evangelization our loving Lord entrusted to us. We have a made a big difference in so many lives through our outreach ministry of our St. Vincent De Paul. Let us raise our hearts and minds in gratitude for all these blessings.

This Year, through your sacrifice and generosity we have paid $174,628 to reduce our debt. Thanks to all of you and all those stewards who worked so hard for our different fund raising projects. We continue our support to our archdiocesan seminary project and ministries through our Ignite donations and DSF. Thanks also to those amazing stewards who help us with our raffles and dinner dances to balance the shortfall of our operating budget. We really felt the loving presence of the Lord and guidance of the Holy Spirit in myriad ways this year.

"O God, who were please to give us the shining example of the Holy Family, graciously grant that we may imitate them in practicing the virtues of family life and in the bonds of charity" (Opening Prayer, Feast of Holy Family). With renewed enthusiasm, let us follow the shining example and virtues of the Holy Family (compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience- Colossians 3:12) and welcome the New Year 2020 because Jesus promised us that He would be with us until the end of the age (Mathew 28:20)

Wishing you all the blessings of our Heavenly Patrons of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, and a Happy and grace filled New Year, Fr. Sunny.

29 de diciembre, 2019 Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia, Jesus, Maria y Jose

Queridos hermanos de la Sagrada Familia,

Al llegar al final del año 2019, agradezcamos a Dios por todas sus bendiciones, especialmente por las gracias por crecer unidos en Cristo como "Una fe, una familia".

Gracias a Dios, este año comenzamos nuestro ministerio de adoración de 12 horas y a través de él todos recibimos abundantes gracias para crecer en nuestra vida de oración. Comenzamos a hacer un plan a largo plazo para nuestra parroquia y estamos avanzando en él a través de nuestra encuesta y formando diferentes comités. Además, hemos formado un comité de comunicación para mejorar los esfuerzos de comunicación y evangelización a través de los medios de comunicación. Nuestro sitio web se ve tan hermoso y actualizado ahora y los felicito y agradezco por su arduo trabajo y dedicación. Dimos la bienvenida a muchas familias nuevas a nuestra familia parroquial y a través de todos nuestros ministerios, especialmente la educación religiosa, continuamos el ministerio de evangelización que nuestro amoroso Señor nos confió. Hemos marcado una gran diferencia en muchas vidas a través de nuestro ministerio de alcance de nuestra Sociedad de San Vicente De Paul. Elevemos nuestros corazones y mentes en agradecimiento por todas estas bendiciones.

Este año, a través de su sacrificio y generosidad, hemos pagado $ 174,628 para reducir nuestra deuda. Gracias a todos ustedes y a todos los que trabajaron tan duro para nuestros diferentes proyectos de recaudación de fondos. Continuamos apoyando nuestro proyecto de seminario Arquidiocesano y los ministerios a través de nuestras donaciones de Enciende y el DSF. Gracias también a los voluntarios corresponsables que nos ayudan con nuestras rifas y bailes con cena para equilibrar el déficit de nuestro presupuesto operativo. Realmente sentimos la presencia amorosa del Señor y la guía del Espíritu Santo de innumerables maneras este año.

"Oh Dios, que estabas dispuesto a darnos el brillante ejemplo de la Sagrada Familia, concede gentilmente que podamos imitarlos al practicar las virtudes de la vida familiar y en los lazos de la caridad" (Oración de apertura, Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia). Con renovado entusiasmo, sigamos el brillante ejemplo y las virtudes de la Sagrada Familia (compasión, benevolencia, humildad, dulzura y paciencia - Colosenses 3:12) y acojamos el Año Nuevo 2020 porque Jesús nos prometió que estaría con nosotros hasta el fin de la historia (Mateo 28:20).

Deseándoles todas las bendiciones de nuestros Patronos celestiales de la Sagrada Familia de Jesús, María y José, y un Feliz año nuevo lleno de gracia,

Padre Sunny

The Feast of the Holy Family...It seems appropriate that we celebrate the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph during the Christmas season, just after families have gathered for Christmas, frequently with stress over gift-giving, travel drama, and the intricacies of meal preparation for people with their various dietary needs and preferences. Today's readings ask us to put family and life in their sacred and holy perspective. When we take care of aging parents we care for Christ, who is with all and in all. When we approach one another with compassion, kindness, gentleness, and patience, we communicate Christ's love. Even when the Lord leads in ways we cannot quite appreciate or understand, we must follow God's will, knowing that in doing so, we cooperate with God's grace in our midst. Every family is called to be a holy family.

YOUR HOLY FAMILY

Families come in all shapes and sizes. When asked to describe your family, you might begin by telling people about a parent, sibling, or extended family members. You might even describe what you have learned from a genealogical study. You are unlikely, however, no matter how wonderful your family may be, to describe your family as "holy." And yet, this is our primary call. Each of us as people of God, and each of our families, is called to be holy. We are called to live as God's people in the world, to communicate God's love and presence through the way that we live together and in relationship with others. Every family, no matter what their circumstances, is called to be a holy family. Even Mary, Joseph, and Jesus faced challenges and trials. And yet they rose to the occasion, listened to and followed God's will, and were assured of the love of the Lord through it all.

LISTEN TO YOUR ANGEL

Have you ever found yourself at a crossroads? One direction may be momentarily advantageous or easy, another more challenging but right or good. It is not always easy to know which direction to choose. Discerning our path of life necessarily involves prayer, the guidance of others whom we trust, and the promptings of the Holy Spirit within us. The example of the Holy Family is that they followed the will of God, trusting in God's abiding presence even when they knew that doing so involved risk and uncertainty. Mary trusted the voice of the angel, although the message was beyond comprehension; Joseph listened to the voice of the Lord in dreams and proceeded, assured of God's guiding spirit in the midst of troubling circumstances. This is what our families must do as well. Being Christian people in today's world is not always easy, even when we know it is right. This is the meaning of holiness. This is what it means to be a holy family. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Additional EMHCs (Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion) needed ... Catholics believe that through active participation in the Mass, through the reception of Holy Communion at Mass, they are filled with the real presence of Christ and therefore sent to be Christ's presence in the world. Assisting ordinary ministers (bishops, priests, deacons) in the distribution of communion is one of the most important ministries of the Church. Holy Family needs more EMHCs at every mass. Please pray to the Holy Spirit for discernment.

Will you answer God's call? For more details contact Mary Jo Barta at EMHC@holyfamilychurch.us or 713-501-5415.

SAINT THOMAS BECKET (1118-1170) December 29

To anyone who imagines conflict between religion and politics to be a modern phenomenon, history witnesses otherwise. Martyred under Henry VIII in 1535, Thomas More declared, "I die the king's good servant, but God's first!" Thomas Becket could have said the same four centuries earlier. As Henry II's closest friend and trusted chancellor, Becket, the king presumed, could be counted on, if made archbishop, to deliver the church to royal control. But Becket experienced a profound conversion, confirmed by the ordination liturgy's rich symbolism of the bishop as Good Shepherd and the church as Bride of Christ. Renouncing secular responsibilities, distributing his wealth to the poor, Thomas became the church's uncompromising champion. Faced with this "new" Becket, the king's previous friendship turned into a ferocious, almost irrational hatred. As eight centuries later, Archbishop Romero would be martyred at the altar of Christ's sacrifice, Becket was slain before the altar of Canterbury Cathedral by royal agents, neither the first nor last good shepherd to lay down his life as the price of freedom for Christ's church and justice for Christ's sheep. —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

SANTO TOMÁS BECKET (1118-1170) 29 de diciembre

Tomás Becket se distinguió por su inteligencia y rápido ascenso durante el reinado de Enrique II de Inglaterra. Como canciller, en ausencia del rey, estuvo al mando del reino. No obstante, Enrique II era ambicioso y quería a la Iglesia bajo su dominio, fue por eso que le nombró como Arzobispo de Canterbury en 1162. Sin embargo, Tomás cambió radicalmente: renunció a la cancellería, vendió su mansión, dio el dinero a los pobres y se fue a un monasterio viviendo humildemente. Se opuso públicamente al rey y a sus intenciones de sometimiento de la Iglesia hasta que el mismo rey lo amenazó con la muerte, razón por la que se expatrió a Francia. Luego de una reconciliación temporal, el rey expresó su deseo de librarse del arzobispo y envió a una guardia real a que lo asesinaran, hecho que ocurrió en el altar mayor de la catedral mientras Tomás Becket celebraba la Eucaristía. Sus últimas palabras fueron: "Acepto la muerte en el nombre de Jesús y de la Iglesia". —Miguel Arias, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
