AN ONGOING MISSION

In his hometown synagogue, Jesus' neighbors are amazed by his words. Nevertheless, they remind each other, "Is this not Joseph's son?"

Surely the people know who he is. The carpenter's son. The young man who had learned in this very synagogue. The boy down the street.

Conflict arises as Jesus begins to define himself in a new way. When he compares himself to the ancient prophets Elijah and Elisha the tensions grow. The tensions multiply when Jesus begins to tell of a new mission for God's people: the good news of the scriptures is intended for all.

In his famous passage from the First Letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul reminds us of the eternal nature of love. Love does not come to an end. In today's readings, we are reminded that, like love, Jesus' mission cannot be contained. Jesus slips through the crowd of persecutors and moves on to new challenges. We are called to this same perseverance in the name of love.

UNA MISIÓN CONTINUA

En la sinagoga de su pueblo natal, los vecinos se maravillaban con las palabras de Jesús. No obstante, se preguntaban: "¿No es este el hijo de José?"

Con seguridad la gente sabía quién era Jesús. El hijo del carpintero. El joven que aprendió en esa misma sinagoga. El muchacho de la calle.

El conflicto surge cuando Jesús empieza a definirse de una manera nueva. Las tensiones aumentan cuando se compara con los antiguos profetas Elías y Eliseo. Las tensiones se multiplican cuando Jesús empieza a hablar de una nueva misión para el pueblo de Dios: la Buena Nueva de la Escritura está dirigida a todos.

En su famoso pasaje de la primera carta a los Corintios, san Pablo nos recuerda la naturaleza del amor eterno. El amor no termina. En la lectura de hoy, se nos recuerda que, como el amor, la misión de Jesús no se puede detener. Jesús se desliza entre la multitud de perseguidores y sigue adelante con nuevos retos. Estamos llamados a esta misma perseverancia en nombre del amor.

May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace.

Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen spent an hour everyday in Adoration:

El venerable arzobispo Fulton Sheen pasó una hora todos los días en Adoración

The reason I keep up the Holy Hour is to grow more and more into his likeness. As Paul puts it: "We are transfigured into his likeness, from splendor to splendor." We become like that which we gaze upon. Looking into a sunset, the face takes on a golden glow. Looking at the Eucharistic Lord for an hour transforms the heart in a mysterious way as the face of Moses was transformed after his companionship with God on the mountain. Something happens to us similar to that which happened to the disciples at Emmaus. On Easter Sunday afternoon when the Lord met them, he asked why they were so gloomy. After spending some time in his presence, and hearing again the secret of spirituality – "The Son of Man must suffer to enter into his Glory" – their time with him ended and their "hearts were on fire" ...

So the Holy Hour, quite apart from all its positive spiritual benefits, kept my feet from wandering too far. Being tethered to a tabernacle, one's rope for finding other pastures is not so long. That dim tabernacle lamp, however pale and faint, had some mysterious luminosity to darken the brightness of "bright lights." The Holy Hour became like an oxygen tank to revive the breath of the Holy Spirit in the midst of the foul and fetid atmosphere of the world. Even when it seemed so unprofitable and lacking in spiritual intimacy, I still had the sensation of being at least like a dog at the master's door, ready in case he called me.

La razón por la que sigo la Hora Santa es crecer más y más a su semejanza. Como lo expresa Pablo: "Estamos transfigurados a su semejanza, de esplendor a esplendor". Nos convertimos en aquello que contemplamos. Mirando en una puesta de sol, la cara adquiere un brillo dorado. Mirar al Señor eucarístico durante una hora transforma el corazón de una manera misteriosa cuando el rostro de Moisés se transformó después de su compañía con Dios en la montaña. Nos sucede algo similar a lo que les sucedió a los discípulos en Emaús. En la tarde del domingo de Pascua, cuando el Señor los recibió, les preguntó por qué estaban tan tristes. Después de pasar un tiempo en su presencia y escuchar nuevamente el secreto de la espiritualidad: "El Hijo del Hombre debe sufrir para entrar en su Gloria", su tiempo con él terminó y sus "corazones se encendieron" ...

Así que la Hora Santa, aparte de todos sus beneficios espirituales positivos, evitó que mis pies vagaran demasiado lejos. Atado a un tabernáculo, la cuerda de uno para encontrar otros pastos no es tan larga. Esa tenue lámpara de tabernáculo, aunque pálida y tenue, tenía una misteriosa luminosidad para oscurecer el brillo de las "luces brillantes". La Hora Santa se convirtió en un tanque de oxígeno para revivir el aliento del Espíritu Santo en medio de la atmósfera fétida y fétida de el mundo. Incluso cuando parecía tan poco rentable y carente de intimidad espiritual, todavía tenía la sensación de ser al menos como un perro en la puerta del amo, listo en caso de que me llamara.

Eucharistic Adoration will begin at Holy Family on Thursday, March 7th.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The song of the angels, "Holy, Holy, Holy," resounds from our lips at every Mass. There was a widespread belief in the first religions of the world that God stirred creation into being by a word, a song, a musical note. Music and a sense of God's presence have always been inseparable. In the liturgy, your voice is invited into this song as the priest names the reasons for our praise. "Heaven and earth are full of your glory," and we are not passive on-lookers, but participants in this glory. Catholic prayer no longer assigns this angelic hymn to a choir, but gives it to you to sing. Even if your voice is thought to be suitable only for a well-insulated shower stall, you are called into this song.

We are born to sing—just listen to a baby testing the full range of newly-discovered vocal abilities. Soon we get shushed and hushed into quiet, and given lots of messages that our voices are unwanted, and that we need to raise our hands in order to be heard. All of that is overturned in liturgy, the place where God waits to hear us come alive in the song of all creation. In heaven, everyone's in the choir; why not start practicing now?

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En muchos hogares Latinos el tiempo de Navidad terminó el día dos de febrero con la levantada del Niño Dios en la fiesta de la Candelaria. Es interesante como el pueblo cristiano tiene un cierto afecto para Jesús en su aspecto de niño. Desde hace siglos con el evangelista Lucas y la virgen María la imaginación cristiana ha ido buscando al Divino Niño en el templo; con san Cristóbal lleva cargando al Niño Dios sobre los hombros mientras cruza el río de la vida y san Antonio de Lisboa juega con el Niñito Jesús sobre un libro teológico mientras estudia la Palabra de Dios.

Fueron los monjes cistercienses del siglo XII quienes primero desarrollaron esta devoción al Niño Jesús. En su afán por conocer mejor al Dios hecho humano entraban por medio de la meditación imaginativa en los cuatro evangelios. Esta meditación es un entrar en la vida de Jesús de tal manera que vives los eventos en tu corazón y desarrollar así una relación afectiva con el Señor. La devoción al Niño Dios debe ser acompañada de la lectio divina.

Prayer for 12 Hour Adoration "Could you not watch with me one hour?" (Mathew 26:40)

Heavenly Father, increase our faith in the Real Presence of Your Son Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. We are obliged to adore Him, to give Him thanks and to make reparation for our sins. We need your peace in our hearts, in our families and among nations. We need to grow in Your love and holiness. May we obtain this through prayer and our union with the Eucharistic Lord.

Please send your Holy Spirit upon us and give us the love, courage, and willingness to respond to the invitation to Eucharistic Adoration.

We ask this in the name of Jesus our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Our Lady of the Most Blessed Sacrament, Pray for us.
