Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who have nothing prepared;
for today is holy to our Lord.

January 27, 2019 Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

My Dear Friends,

Back in September 2018, I received an email from one of our high school students asking me to respond to some questions they have. I would like to share my response to another of these questions. In this response, I refer to the YouCat, the Youth Catechism of the Catholic Church, specifically the section beginning on p.218, para. 400.

Why should sex be saved for marriage?

First, we should understand that God created humankind as male and female, for each other and for love, with erotic desires and the ability to experience physical pleasure. God made us this way because he intended us to complement each other in love and to participate in His creative power by bringing forth children. So, there is a dual purpose to the sexual union between a man and a woman, a unitive purpose and a procreative purpose.

Love, true love, is willing the good of another, or as the Youcat states, the free self-giving of the heart. The physical expression of our sexuality must never be separated from love because it is intended to be the ultimate expression of the self-giving love between spouses. The sexual encounter requires the framework of a true, dependable love. As Pope St. John Paul II wrote in Familiaris Consortio, sexual union “is by no means something purely biological, but concerns the innermost being of the human person as such. It is realized in a truly human way only if it is an integral part of the love by which a man and a woman commit themselves totally to one another until death.” He thus reaffirms what the Church has taught from the beginning, sexual union is reserved for marriage. He also taught, “One cannot live a trial life or die a trial death. One cannot love on a trial basis or accept a person on trial and for a limited time.”

This is obviously a challenge in our modern society that continually has sexual messages from advertisements, TV programs, music, etc. that promote sexual expression outside of marriage. Sexual union is the most beautiful bodily, sensual expression of self-giving love. When it is sought only for the sake of personal satisfaction, it has lost its meaning and becomes inhuman; it is degraded to a means of obtaining pleasure, degenerates to a commodity and does lasting damage to body and soul.

But we who call ourselves Christians are called to be a light to the world, to be in the world but not of the world. We also should heed the advice of the French philosopher Paul Ricoeur: “Everything that makes a sexual encounter easy hastens at the same time its plunge into irrelevance.”

Deacon Bill

Mis queridos amigos,

En septiembre de 2018, recibí un correo electrónico de uno de nuestros estudiantes de secundaria pidiéndome que respondiera algunas de las preguntas que tenían. Me gustaría compartir mi respuesta a otra de estas preguntas. En esta respuesta, me refiero al YouCat, el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica para Adolescentes, específicamente la sección que comienza en el párr. 400. ¿Por qué se debe guardar el sexo para el matrimonio?

Primero, debemos entender que Dios creó a la humanidad como hombre y mujer, para el otro y para el amor, con deseos eróticos y la capacidad de experimentar placer físico. Dios nos hizo de esta manera porque quería que nos complementáramos mutuamente en amor y que participásemos de Su poder creativo al dar a luz hijos. Entonces, hay un doble propósito para la unión sexual entre un hombre y una mujer, un propósito unitivo y un propósito procreativo.

*El amor, el amor verdadero, es querer el bien de otro, o como dice el Youcat, la entrega libre del corazón. La expresión física de nuestra sexualidad nunca debe separarse del amor, ya que está destinada a ser la máxima expresión del amor de entrega entre los esposos. El encuentro sexual requiere el marco de un amor verdadero y confiable. Como escribió el Papa San Juan Pablo II en Familiaris Consortio, la unión sexual “no es de ninguna manera algo puramente biológico, sino que se refiere al ser más interno de la persona humana como tal. Se realiza de una manera verdaderamente humana solo si es una parte integral del amor mediante el cual un hombre y una mujer se comprometen totalmente entre sí hasta la muerte”. Así, reafirma lo que la Iglesia ha enseñado desde el principio, la unión sexual es reservada para el matrimonio. También enseñó: “Uno no puede vivir una vida de prueba o morir una muerte de prueba. Uno no puede amar a prueba o aceptar a una persona en prueba y por un tiempo limitado”.

Esto es obviamente un desafío en nuestra sociedad moderna que continuamente tiene mensajes sexuales en anuncios, programas de televisión, música, etc. que promueven la expresión sexual fuera del matrimonio. La unión sexual es la más bella expresión corporal y sensual del amor que se entrega. Cuando se busca solo por satisfacción personal, ha perdido su significado y se vuelve inhumano; está degradado a un medio para obtener placer, degenera en una mercancía y causa un daño duradero al cuerpo y al alma.

Pero los que nos llamamos cristianos somos llamados a ser una luz para el mundo, para estar en el mundo pero no del mundo. También deberíamos prestar atención al consejo del filósofo francés Paul Ricoeur: “Todo lo que hace que un encuentro sexual sea fácil se acelera al mismo tiempo que cae en la irrelevancia”.

Diácono Bill

Morning Scripture Study: Evangelization and the Acts of the Apostles... Who better to look for guidance on evangelization that the Apostles and disciples of the early Church? And what better place to read their stories that in the firsthand account of the Acts of the Apostles? This will be the topic for a 10-week scripture study beginning on Tuesday, February 5, 2018, at 9:30 am in the Centennial Room. This study will explore topics such as the call of Jesus to evangelize, the power of the Sacraments, the role of charisms for building up the Body of Christ, techniques from St. Paul for reaching a secular society, and more. No previous bible study experience is necessary. There is a nominal charge of $10 to cover the study materials. To sign up or for further information, please call (281-499-9688) or email Deacon Bill (William.seifert@holyfamilychurch.us).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION... Saturday's feast of the Presentation is a day for the blessing of candles. Why does liturgy require candles? In the first years of the church, worship was often at night, and candles and torches were carried from place to place within the worship space as needed. Candles were also a mark of festivity and hospitality when people gathered for prayer in homes, and later on in large buildings with thick walls and dark corners. But even after gaslight and electricity, candles were kept.

Part of the reason has to do with the warm, clean light of a candle's flame. Candles are a good sign of the partnership of God and creation: wax made by bees, gathered and fashioned by human hands into something beautiful and useful. In order for the light to shine, the candle surrenders itself, almost as if it is pouring itself out so that the light can flood into the world. The candle of baptism, placed into our hands, and carried again and again, speaks silently of that same wisdom. If you would save your life, you must lose it. You must pour your life out like Christ so that you may be filled with the light of his love.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE... El día 3 de febrero se celebra entre misas, mariachis, fuegos artificiales y muchas expresiones de religiosidad popular, la fiesta de Nuestra Señora de la Concepción de Suyapa en Honduras. Fue un sábado del mes de febrero, cuando Alejandro Colindres, un joven humilde labrador, y Jorge Martínez, un niño de ocho años, la encontraron.

Según la tradición estos llegaron cansados a la quebrada del Piligüín. Acostándose sobre el suelo, Alejandro sintió lo que le parecía una piedra en su espalda. Por más que intentaba arrojarla lejos, cuando se acostaba sentía la misma piedra. Por fin en lugar de tirarla, la puso en su mochila y al amanecer descubrió que no era piedra sino una pequeña imagen de María (6.5 cm.) con rostro indígena tallada en madera.

En 1780 se le construyó un templo y en 1796 se registró su primer milagro. El Papa Pío XII la proclamó Patrona de la República de Honduras en 1925. En las advocaciones latinoamericanas ella es nombrada como la fortaleza de los humildes.

May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace.

Eucharistic Adoration...an invitation to a personal relationship with Jesus.

"Come away by yourselves to a lonely place and rest a while." Mk 6:31

We live in an age of advanced technology that puts volumes of information at our fingertips, but this technology also makes great demands of our time. Time is one of our greatest possessions; hence, one of the greatest gifts we have to give. Often society tells us that our worth is measured in our productivity. Our time must be employed in "doing."

The Pope has said: "I would like to recall the priority of prayer over action since it is on prayer that the effectiveness of action depends. The Church's mission largely depends on each person's personal relationship with the Lord Jesus and must therefore be nourished by prayer."

We, the laity, per the Second Vatican Council were given the challenge to aspire to be saints in the "universal call to holiness." The way of sanctity of priests and religious for centuries was opened to us in developing intimacy with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament through adoration.

There is a growing and troubling phenomenon that many Catholics are leaving the Church because they are drawn elsewhere by a message of a personal relationship with Jesus. And yet there is no more personal a relationship with Jesus than where He is in person in the Holy Eucharist, body, blood, soul and divinity.

How wonderful to experience His Eucharistic Presence fully in order to not take so great a gift for granted. How do we experience Jesus in the Holy Eucharist fully? We offer ourselves with Him to the Father in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, by receiving Him in Holy Communion and by adoring Him in the Blessed Sacrament, as He remains with us day and night.

As Pope Benedict XVI states, "In the Eucharist the Son of God comes to meet us and desires to become one with us; Eucharistic adoration is simply the natural consequence of the Eucharistic celebration, which is the Church's supreme act of adoration." (Sacramentum Caritatis) He teaches that, "Communion and adoration are indivisibly one." (God is Near Us, Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger)

This is what Jesus is inviting us to – to get to know Him better by spending a weekly holy hour with Him in the Blessed Sacrament. In fact, Jesus longs to be loved by us as He told Saint Margaret Mary when she was adoring Him in the convent chapel, "I thirst with an ardent thirst to be loved in this Blessed Sacrament." Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta said, "The best time you will spend on earth is the time you spend with your Best Friend, Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament."

Adoración Eucarística... una invitación a una relación personal con Jesús.

"Vengan ustedes solos a un lugar desierto, para descansar un poco". Mc 6:31

Vivimos en una era de tecnología avanzada que pone volúmenes de información a nuestro alcance, pero esta tecnología también representa una gran demanda de nuestro tiempo. El tiempo es una de nuestras mayores posesiones; Por lo tanto, uno de los mayores regalos que tenemos para dar.

A menudo la sociedad nos dice que nuestro valor se mide en nuestra productividad. Nuestro tiempo debe ser empleado en "hacer". El Papa ha dicho: "Me gustaría recordar la prioridad de la oración sobre la acción, ya que la oración depende de la eficacia de la acción. La misión de la Iglesia depende en gran medida de la relación personal de cada persona con el Señor Jesús y, por lo tanto, debe ser alimentada por la oración."

Nosotros, los laicos, según el Concilio Vaticano II, tuvimos el desafío de aspirar a ser santos en el "llamado universal a la santidad". El camino de la santidad de los sacerdotes y religiosos durante siglos se nos abrió al desarrollar la intimidad con Jesús en el Santísimo Sacramento a través de la adoración. Existe un fenómeno creciente y preocupante que muchos católicos están abandonando la Iglesia porque son atraídos a otra parte por un mensaje de una relación personal con Jesús. Y sin embargo, no hay una relación más personal con Jesús que donde él está en persona en la Sagrada Eucaristía, cuerpo, sangre, alma y divinidad.

Qué maravilloso es experimentar plenamente su presencia Eucarística. ¿Cómo experimentamos plenamente a Jesús en la Sagrada Eucaristía? Nos ofrecemos con Él al Padre en el Santo Sacrificio de la Misa, al recibirlo en la Santa Comunión y al adorarlo en el Santísimo Sacramento, ya que Él permanece con nosotros día y noche. Como afirma el Papa Benedicto XVI: "En la Eucaristía, el Hijo de Dios viene a nuestro encuentro y desea unirse con nosotros; La adoración eucarística es simplemente la consecuencia natural de la celebración eucarística, que es el acto supremo de adoración de la Iglesia." (Sacramentum Caritatis) Él enseña que, "La comunión y la adoración son indivisiblemente una". (Dios está cerca de nosotros, José Cardenal Ratzinger) Esto es a lo que Jesús nos invita a conocerlo mejor al pasar una hora santa semanal con él en el Santísimo Sacramento. De hecho, Jesús anhela ser amado por nosotros como le dijo a Santa Margarita María cuando ella estaba adorando a Él en la capilla del convento, "Tengo sed pero una sed tan ardiente de ser amado de los hombres en el Santísimo Sacramento". La Santa Madre Teresa de Calcuta dijo: "El mejor momento que pasará en la tierra es el tiempo que pasa con su mejor amigo, Jesús en el Santísimo Sacramento".

Prayer for 12 Hour Adoration "Could you not watch with me one hour?" (Mathew 26:40)

Heavenly Father, increase our faith in the Real Presence of Your Son Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. We are obliged to adore Him, to give Him thanks and to make reparation for our sins. We need your peace in our hearts, in our families and among nations. We need to grow in Your love and holiness. May we obtain this through prayer and our union with the Eucharistic Lord.

Please send your Holy Spirit upon us and give us the love, courage, and willingness to respond to the invitation to Eucharistic Adoration.

We ask this in the name of Jesus our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Our Lady of the Most Blessed Sacrament, Pray for us.
