June 30, 2019 Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

RADICAL TRANSFORMATION

On this Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, the readings describe anything but an ordinary time. They are disturbing and they leave us disturbed. The Old Testament reading recounts a young man's radical break with the past to follow a new path. The Gospel describes how life as we know it is abruptly changed if we follow the call of Christ. The psalm and Paul assure us that such life-altering change is possible only because of the power of God's love. We are presented with a stark choice. To love as God loves, we must leave our old lives behind. We must leave behind not just the bad, the selfish, and the evil but the ordinary, our daily work, and the important, our families, our lives. Loving as God loves requires a radical transformation, not a smooth transition.

TRANSFORMACIÓN RADICAL

En este Trigésimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, las lecturas describen todo menos un tiempo ordinario. Son inquietantes y nos dejan preocupados. La lectura del Antiguo Testamento cuenta acerca de un joven que rompió radicalmente con el pasado para seguir un nuevo camino. El Evangelio describe cómo repentinamente cambia la vida que conocemos si seguimos la llamada de Cristo. El Salmo y Pablo nos aseguran que ese cambio de vida es posible solo a causa del poder del amor de Dios. Se nos presenta una dura elección. Para amar como Dios ama, debemos dejar atrás a nuestras vidas antiguas. Debemos dejar atrás no solo lo malo, el egoísmo y el mal sino lo ordinario, nuestro trabajo diario y lo importante, nuestras familias, nuestras vidas. Amar con Dios ama requiere una transformación radical, no una transición tranquila.

For the next few weeks we will introduce you to the young men who answered the call to serve God & others. Today we introduce you to Fr. Ryan Andrew Stawaisz.

Fr. Stawaisz was born in Aberdeen, Scotland and moved with his family around the world before landing in Tomball in 2004, where he and his family worshipped at St. Anne Catholic Church. He first began thinking about entering the seminary while he was studying to be a petroleum engineer at Texas A&M University.

"I met a great group of people there who encouraged me in my faith and inspired me to greater holiness," he said.

While in college, he was diagnosed with cancer and came back to Tomball for treatment, which included an operation on his hip and a round of chemotherapy.

"Thanks be to God, the cancer went into remission and I continued my studies and formation at A&M," he said. "After graduation, I realized there was nothing I wanted to do more than to find and follow God's will in my life."

Fr Stawaisz served his diaconate year at St. Anthony of Padua Parish in The Woodlands, and learned an inoperable cancer mass had been found in his lung. Steadfast in his faith, Fr. Stawaisz calls the priesthood a vocation to love, and said that he knows God has called him to be one.

"My time in seminary has helped me see that God calls people from all walks of life to accomplish His mission," he said. "He has a different plan for me than for you, but if each of us do our part it is going to make for a great life!"

Will you answer God's call? The Holy Eucharist is the source and summit of our Catholic faith. Catholics believe that through active participation in the Mass, through the reception of Holy Communion at Mass, they are filled with the real presence of Christ and therefore sent to be Christ's presence in the world. Assisting ordinary ministers (bishops, priests, deacons) in the distribution of communion is one of the most important ministries of the church. Holy Family needs more EMHCs at every mass. Please pray to the Holy Spirit for discernment. For more details contact Mary Jo Barta at EMHC@holyfamilychurch.us or 713-501-5415.

VIRTUE...It is certainly true that a popular government cannot flourish without virtue in the people.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Processions are life's journey distilled. We move with companions, aware that Christ accompanies us, as we move to the altar for Communion or to the font for baptism, or carry a loved one to a place of rest. In Europe, the season of pilgrimage is beginning now, and tens of thousands of people are moving by foot on well-worn paths. Some take as long as six weeks to walk the last few hundred miles of the medieval pilgrimage route to the Shrine of St. James the Apostle in Compostella, in northern Spain.

Those who make the journey by foot, hiking, or by bicycle, have a kind of passport stamped at villages and monasteries on the road. When they present this document at the cathedral, they are given the emblem of a pilgrim, the scallop shell of St. James. High over their heads at Mass, a huge botafumero twirls clouds of sweet incense through the cathedral. Cynics say it is to mask the odor of smelly feet. The pilgrims know better. Seeing through the clouds the happy faces of those they met along the road, they recognize a foretaste of the welcome into heaven, and the joy of meeting loved ones in the Kingdom of God.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El último sábado de junio o el primero de julio en un ayuntamiento de Valcidacos, España, se pone en escena el Miserere escrito por Gustavo Adolfo Bécquer (1836-1870). Esta obra relata como un músico llega de noche a la Abadía de Fetero pidiendo posada. Los hermanos del monasterio lo invitaron a pasar la noche. Allí él les contó su vida pecaminosa y su deseo de encontrar un Miserere (Salmo 51) digno de expiar sus pecados ante Dios. Le contaron del Miserere del Monte que cantaban durante la noche los monjes difuntos de un Monasterio que había sido destruido siglos atrás. El músico afanado por encontrar su Miserere, corrió a la montaña donde escuchó aquel lamentoso y bello canto. Al regresar a la Abadía intentó escribir la música de aquel Miserere, pero lo único que logro fue volverse loco.

Aquel pobre hombre murió sin reconocer que cada quien debe entonar a su manera su propio y pobre Miserere mei (piedad de mi). Dios no nos perdona por la belleza o la fuerza de nuestra confesión, sino por su amor y su misericordia.

Stewardship Reflection...13th Sunday in Ordinary Time: June 30... That we build God's Church to glorify His name and not look for prestige and honor for ourselves. "For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather serve one another through love." (Galatians 5:13) We like to celebrate the fact that we are free to "live the good life." But Jesus calls us to a different kind of freedom. St. Paul reminds us that Jesus sets us free so that we can serve one another, share our gifts and promote God's work here on earth to glorify His name and not honor ourselves.

Letters from Heaven

Start with the letter in the shaded square. Draw a path from letter to letter to complete the Biblical statement. Move one square at a time, up, down, right, left and diagonally until all letters are used once. Ignore any black squares.

But he replied, "Lord, let me go first ..."
